

CLOCKTOWER CON APRIL 12-14 2024

EXHIBITOR INFORMATION

What is Clocktower Con?

Clocktower Con is a newer social deduction and board game convention. The Con heavily features the social game, Blood on the Clocktower. After the first success in 2023 of 500 attendees, Clocktower Con is back and bigger than before. We will have 750+ attendees all looking to have a memorable experience with fellow gamers!

With over 15,000 square feet of gaming space, attendees can dive into Social Deduction games, Board Games, watch panels, and attend workshops. For more information on the convention, please visit our website: ClocktowerCon.com

When and Where?

April 12-14, 2024 in Washington D.C. (Tysons, VA to be exact). The convention is held at the Hilton McLean Tysons Corner hotel.

What events are held? What games are played?

The convention is centered around the game, Blood on the Clocktower (BotC), so we aim to support 80% of our attendance levels playing the game during peak times. We also provide space for board games, including a growing board game library. We offer other social deduction games, RPGs, workshops, panels and more. We're zgrowing our exhibitor & sponsorship opportunities! In 2023 we had a small selection of vendors and this year we're looking to double that number to support our increased attendance levels.

What are the Con Demographics?

Board Gamers! Folks you would find at GenCon, Pax Unplugged, and your tiny local con. The con is growing and with over 700 sold out badges most of the attendees are part of the larger Blood on the Clocktower community. They are primarily:

- Age 25-50
- Residing all over the United States, but mostly the East Coast and the North East.
- Growing in Diversity, strongly LGBTQIA+ Friendly
- Online and In-Person gamers
- Giant Nerds!
