CLOCKTOWER CON MISSION STATEMENT

Clocktower Con was started with the intent to gather Blood on the Clocktower players in order to play and participate in gaming events with like-minded people. Our mission is to create a fun, safe, equitable space for all players to meet and play.

WELCOME TO CLOCKTOWER CON 2024!

“The mystery of life isn’t a problem to solve, but a reality to experience.”

This might seem like a strange way to kick off our program, but as a favorite quote of mine, and an excerpt from Frank Herbert’s Dune it seems apt this year. I think this quote is a good reminder to experience the positive aspects in life and accept the things you can’t control rather than to fixate on the things you’re unable to change. What does this have to do with Clocktower? Well I believe that life is and always should be a journey of living every day to the fullest—and that is never more evident than when in a convention hall surrounded by hundreds of people giddily playing games and making new friends.

We’ve all gone through a lot this year, from turbulent global news to personal changes both big and small. After the success of Clocktower Con 2023 our team was so extremely grateful that we were able to bring together so many people that we decided to do it again. We would not be here for 2024 were it not for people like you wanting to experience the wild joy of lying to a friend in the name of being a good worthy demon.

After a year of hard work we hope you take away how much care and dedication we have put into this event. We aspire to provide excellence throughout all that we do but our goal is and always has been to bring together people. Final Three aims to provide one-of-a-kind event experiences where you can play games and meet new friends. We believe in growing and building this community into something bigger, better, and stronger than a single game.

As we kick off a new con and look ahead to the future, we want to thank all of the people who have helped us get here. From our content creator partners, to the volunteers helping to support us, to the individuals making tokens or merch and the folks helping to teach new storytellers in Event Tracks. Thank you for extending your time and energy to help grow our community.

Finally thanks to you, for embracing the journey and the connections that make Clocktower Con a reality.

Happy Gaming!

— Final Three (Emily, Marshall, Kendra, Ekin, Bardic, Edd, Capelli, and Kohava)

We are delighted to be joined by four amazing special guests from Blood on the Clocktower, comedy and television, and the broader world of social deduction!

Chris Grace

Chris Grace is best known for playing Jerry on NBC's Superstore and can also be seen in PEN15, Broad City, Atypical, and more. He performs stand-up all over the world, and recently won 1st Place at the Riot Festival National Comedy Contest in Houston. His solo show "Chris Grace: As Scarlett Johansson" had a sold-out run at the Edinburgh Fringe, which is where he also got his first taste of playing Blood on the Clocktower! He loves tacos and dumplings in equal measure and currently his favorite role is Goblin.

Stephen Fishbach is a writer, podcaster, and multiple-time Survivor loser. In 2009, he was the runner-up on Survivor: Tocantins, the only person ever to receive 0 votes to win in a final 2. In 2015, he was voted in by fans who clearly wanted to humiliate him further for Survivor: Second Chance. He has been podcasting for over fifteen years about game strategy, notably in The Survivor Know-It-Alls and The Genius Know-It-Alls.

Ben Burns

A YouTuber and streamer, best known for his work as part of The Pandemonium Institute, in which he plays and runs Blood on the Clocktower, as well as his multiple appearances as Storyteller for No Rolls Barred. We are so excited to welcome Ben once again to Clocktower Con 2024!

Edd Gabriel

Newly-appointed Chief Operations Officer for the Pandemonium Institute Edd has been volunteering and working with TPI since its Kickstarter days. His favorite part of Clocktower is watching people share in the joy of the game and connect with one another.
